

General terms and conditions for suppliers for the use of the services of Mysupply

Date: April 8, 2020

Preamble

The Mysupply GmbH, Jungfernstieg 7, 20354, Hamburg (hereinafter "Mysupply") operates an online platform www.mysupply.ai, on which its customers (hereinafter "Customers") can submit requests for the procurement of goods and services ("services"; overall hereinafter referred to as "requests"). Customers may receive offers from suppliers of services (hereinafter referred to as "Suppliers") via the online platform. The contracting parties shall always be the Customer and the Supplier.

Section 1 – General Conditions

§ 1 SCOPE

These general terms and conditions (hereinafter: "GTC") shall apply to all contracts concluded in connection with Mysupply's performance.

§ 2 AUTHORIZED CONTRACTORS

(1) The contract with Mysupply is concluded exclusively via the online platform and only with registered suppliers (hereinafter: "Users").

(2) Registration is exclusively open to natural or legal persons or partnerships with legal capacity who act in the exercise of their commercial or self-employed professional activity and are accordingly entrepreneurs within the meaning of § 14 BGB (German Civil Code). The registration and the use of the online platform by a person who thereby pursues a purpose which can predominantly neither be attributed to his commercial nor his self-employed professional activity is inadmissible. Registration and use by minors are likewise prohibited.

§ 3 CHARGES

(1) The registration and use of the functions of the online platform are free of charge for the Supplier.

§ 4 ONLINE NEGOTIATION

(1) According to these GTC, an online negotiation is defined as a temporary process that enables Customers to determine an appropriate remuneration for a specific request and subsequently accept a corresponding offer from a Supplier.

(2) Mysupply has no obligation, but the right to review the Customer's requests before they are activated for the Suppliers. A user is not entitled to the activation of his request.

(3) Only those registered Suppliers who have been selected by the Customer specifically or generally are entitled to participate in an online negotiation and thus to submit offers. Mysupply has the right to examine Suppliers for participation in the online negotiation before they are made available to the Customer for final selection.

(4) The Supplier is not entitled to be notified of a request or to be given the opportunity to participate in the online negotiation.

(5) The Suppliers may no longer change or withdraw their offers after submission. In exceptional cases where the Supplier is not at fault, Mysupply may cancel the offer without acknowledging any legal obligation. Mysupply can refuse the cancellation if the reasons put forward are not sufficiently demonstrated and proven. Only Mysupply can make the change or withdrawal of the offer in such a case.

(6) Furthermore, the Suppliers can ask the Customer questions about their request submitting the offer. The questions as well as the answers of the Customers are visible for all Suppliers participating in the online negotiation. The Suppliers have the obligation to review the questions of other suppliers for possible effects on their offer.

§ 5 OTHER NEGOTIATION METHODS

The Customer may further negotiate the offers of the suppliers before accepting them. Mysupply provides a mechanism for this negotiation on the online platform. The Customer can also conduct the negotiation offline. If the parties conduct the negotiation offline, they have to document the conclusion of the contract themselves.

§ 6 ABUSIVE BEHAVIOUR

It is prohibited to use the online platform in a manner other than the one described here and for any purpose other than those as set out in these GTC. In particular, it is forbidden:

- to circumvent the technical precautions to prevent misuse;
- to manipulate or to agree to fix the prices of own or third-party offers by using several User accounts or in cooperation with other Users;
- to systematically read out and store the information about users available on the online platform or to use it for any purpose other than to initiate a contract with Mysupply;
- the use of the online platform with the intention of circumventing the commission fee for Mysupply.

§ 7 SERVICES NOT OFFERED OR TENDERED

(1) Mysupply does not offer any services which are immoral or violate the rights of third parties or the law. Furthermore, Mysupply does not offer any services that require a regulated/official permission under German law. This includes (in accordance with the relevant definition of the currently valid version of the respective German law or of the professional chamber in Germany) in particular:

- out-of-court legal services within the meaning of the Legal Services Act (German Rechtsdienstleistungsgesetz);
- services of a lawyer within the meaning of the Federal Lawyers' Act (German Bundesrechtsanwaltsordnung);
- services of an auditor within the meaning of the Auditor's Regulations (German Wirtschaftsprüferordnung);
- services of a tax consultant within the meaning of the Tax Consulting Law (German Steuerberatungsgesetz);
- services of notary within the meaning of the Federal Notarial Code (German Bundesnotarordnung);

- services of notary within the meaning of the Federal Notarial Code (German Bundesnotarordnung);
- services of patent attorney within the meaning of the Patent Attorneys' Act (German Patentanwaltsordnung);
- services of an architect;
- services of a consulting engineer (if bound by a code of professional conduct).

(2) The tender of any of the services referred to in § 7 (1) by the Customer is not permitted.

(3) It is likewise not permissible to offer or promote such a service by the Supplier.

(4) Mysupply reserves the right to make the admissibility of services subject to conditions which go beyond those mentioned in § 7 (1).

§ 8 INDEMNITY

The User indemnifies Mysupply against all claims that other Users or third parties assert against Mysupply due to infringement of their rights by services advertised or offered by the User via the online platform or because of its other use of the online platform. The User assumes the costs of the necessary legal defense by the expert, including all court costs and attorney fees at the statutory rate. This does not apply if the user is not responsible for the infringement. The user is obliged to make available to Mysupply immediately, truthfully and completely all information necessary for the examination of the claims and a defense in the event of a claim by third parties.

§ 9 LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE

(1) Mysupply is not liable for damages resulting from a negligent breach of duty by Mysupply or his vicarious agents, insofar as their occurrence in the context of the respective contractual relationship was not reasonably expected. As a rule, the occurrence of a loss does not have to be expected if it is only indirectly based on the breach of duty.

(2) Paragraph 1 does not apply to damages from injury to life, body or health as well as to the violation of cardinal obligations.

(3) If the damage suffered by the user is due to a breach of duty by another user, Mysupply will, as a precaution, assign all claims against infringing users arising from the respective uniform circumstances of life to the infringed user. A claim against Mysupply by the infringing user is only admissible after prior judicial actions against the infringing user by the infringed user, and only to the extent that the proceedings against the infringing user have not provided remedy and this is not based on a culpable omission of the infringed user.

(4) Mysupply is not obliged to perform and can withdraw from the contract, provided that Mysupply cannot fulfill the contract, even though Mysupply has contracted with carefully chosen contract partners.

(5) Mysupply assumes no liability for the selection of Customers and Suppliers. Customers and Suppliers choose their contractual partners on their own responsibility.

(6) When submitting data to the platform, the User preserves all copyright, rights of third parties and applicable laws.

§ 10 THE CUSTOMER'S RIGHTS IN THE EVENT OF DEFICIENCIES

(1) In the case Mysupply owes a duty to perform a task in the form of a work under this contract, it is the Customer's responsibility to control the work immediately after delivery and to notify any defect without delay. If such a defect appears later, the notification must be made to Mysupply immediately after the discovery as well.

(2) If the Customer fails to send such notification within 5 days after the defect could have been reasonably discovered, the notice of defect shall be regarded as out of time. Decisive is the date on which Mysupply receives the Customer's notice and the description of the defect.

(3) If the Customer fails to make the immediate notification, the Customer cannot assert the defect, unless the defendant has maliciously concealed the defect.

(4) Irrespective of § 12 (1) to (3), a work which is essentially free of defects shall be deemed as accepted at latest 14 days after delivery.

(5) If a work performed by Mysupply is regarded as deficient and the Customer remedies the defect himself, Mysupply shall, without prejudice to § 10 (1) to (4), only reimburse the Customer's expenses if Mysupply accepted such a practice in advance. Mysupply does not refuse his consent if this were disproportionate to the interests of the parties.

(6) In the case of a defect of the work, Mysupply always has the right, at his option, to remedy the defect or to produce a new work. The Customer's right to withdraw from the contract, the reduction of remuneration owned by the Customer or the demand to be compensated for damages due to the defect is not permissible before the supplementary performance failed a second time or Mysupply refuses the supplementary performance.

§ 11 NO VALIDITY OF DEVIATING GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Deviating, conflicting or supplementary general terms and conditions or the Customer's terms of use are not applicable.

§ 12 AMENDMENTS TO THE GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Mysupply reserves the right to change these general terms and conditions at any time and without giving reasons, with the effect for the future. Mysupply will inform their contractual partners about the intended changes by e-mail at least four weeks before their entry into force and will make the amended terms and conditions accessible to the contractual partners. The amendments shall be deemed approved if the contractual partner does not object in writing within four weeks after receipt of the notification. The notification will contain a corresponding reference to this period as well as the consequences of the omission of an objection. Decisive for the observance of the deadline is the receipt of the objection by Mysupply. In the event of a timely objection, both parties have the right to terminate the relevant contracts.

§ 13 INVALIDITY OF INDIVIDUAL CLAUSES

Should individual provisions of these general terms and conditions be or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. The law shall replace the provisions of the general terms and conditions which are not included or invalid. Unless such legislation is not available (regulatory gap) or produces an intolerable result, instead of using the non-included or invalid provision, the parties will enter into negotiations to adopt an effective settlement which is as close as possible to the economic interests of the other party.

Section 3- Customer's contract with the Supplier

§ 26 CONDITION OF THE CONTRACT IN THE ONLINE- NEGOTIATION-PROCEDURE

(1) The agreement between the Customer and the Supplier in the online-negotiation-procedure shall be concluded as follows:

a) The request submitted by the Customer to initiate the online negotiation represents a legally non-binding request to an indefinite group of Suppliers to make offers to the Customers.

c) The Supplier makes a legally binding offer to conclude a contract with the Customer resulting from the Customer's request and the clarification by the Customer's answers to questions of the Supplier during the online negotiation as well as the presented remuneration. The Supplier shall be bound by his offer for ten working days or the period specifically stated in the request from the submission and may not revoke his offer during this period.
